This string involves a variety of subjects re the Magnolia case, including Senator Cornyn's office calling Greg Sullivan today; the proposed letter from Larry Starfield on behalf of Administrator Pruitt to John Surma (Magnolia's attorney); and a statement that the letter from EPA to Senator Cornyn went out today.

A few other developments too –

Just to summarize: EPA made a counteroffer in writing on April 4, and we had subsequent exchanges with Magnolia's outside counsel, John Surma, about when we could expect a response from Magnolia (this week) and when EPA would like to reach a settlement in principle (May 1). See attached email.

Meanwhile, it's our understanding that the letter to Cornyn is going out today. The letter to Surma (also attached) is in the review process.

Going forward, I am putting in a call to Surma to ascertain when we can expect a response and to reiterate that we would like to reach some understanding on settlement by May 1.

James and Amos,

Do you have the latest. Please send to Dan Drazan. Also, can I get the latest? Did we counter, what was the response, etc.? Thanks
